

Four interactive digital touchscreens are positioned in a row at the bottom of the exhibit. The central touchscreen is titled "TREE OF LIFE" and displays a glowing blue phylogenetic tree. The other three touchscreens show various biological images and text, providing additional information about the specimens and the tree of life.